NONCOMPLIANCE SUMMARY

The offender has not complied with the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
1	The offender has violated the special supervision condition which states 'You must refrain from the illegal possession and use of drugs, including prescription medication not prescribed in your name, and/or the use of alcohol, and must submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to ensure compliance. It is further ordered that you must submit to evaluation and treatment, on an outpatient or inpatient basis, as approved by the U.S. Probation Office. You must abide by the rules of any program and must remain in treatment until satisfactorily discharged by the Court. You must alert all medical professionals of any prior substance abuse history, including any prior history of prescription drug abuse. The U.S. Probation Office will supervise your compliance with this condition.' The offender reported to the probation office upon his release from Toler House on November 13, 2019. A urine sample taken during the office visit tested positive for buprenorphine (Suboxone) via a multi-panel instant test. The offender vehemently denied intentional use of any illicit substances, but admitted that prior to being released from Toler House, he took a cup of coffee from another inmate who he knew to be a narcotics distributor, and that after drinking the coffee, he felt physically "awful."

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

The offender was counseled regarding the positive results. He was advised that the noncompliance would be reported to the Court and that treatment options will be considered and implemented to prevent any substance abuse relapse, given the fact he is a former heroin abuser. At this juncture, it is respectfully requested that no action be taken by the Court. If Your Honor approves, the probation officer will increase urine monitoring for illicit drug use detection, seek treatment for the offender, and requests that this document be used as an official judicial reprimand.

Respectfully submitted,

Gisella M. Bassolino/jf
